

Meeting Notes: September 23, 2013.

Start time 6:32pm

Council members present: Gregory Beaty, Cynthia Hergenbahn, Earl Grey, and Joan Hamilton.

Cynthia opens with introduction welcoming David Craig and introducing him to community in attendance. Mr. Craig speaks on a number of topics including Walmart plans to build and the appeal that they have run into. Two traffic plans submitted from Walmart have been turned down. It's his opinion that it will take possibly years before the whole process completes.

Mr. Craig spoke about the Evergreen apartment project.

The Storm water tax was discussed and Mr. Craig explained that he was against the tax and the fact that the federal government was not helping with the tax.

Talked about the two-year plan being down to a one-year plan to include I.T infrastructure update.

Mentioned that the budget from Federal Government should drop 25% for next FY.

Med-Star in appeal right now because another builder wants the same property space.

Questions from the community concerning Walmart. Dion Guthrie and Aaron Tomarchio assist Mr. Craig answering some questions from community members in attendance.

Dion Guthrie mentions that the County Council has no input when it comes to the approval of Walmart.

Mr. Craig continues to update, Art Center project status has not changed. No funding, No progress. End of Mr. Craig's time. He leaves asking his staff to remain for Q&A.

Amber speaks about the Library foundation upcoming gala. Shows some jewelry pieces that will be auctioned off during gala taking place the first Saturday in November.

Earl Grey updates all regarding Facebook and the matrix. Gives the web site address.

Joe Woods speaks briefly, apologies for being late. Gives a short update on his work with Board of Education.

Dion Guthrie speaks about the storm water tax. Says he is against it because of the way it is collected. He feels every county should pay equally.

Cynthia ends the meeting.